Women’s Coffee Connect Tuesdays! All women are invited to meet at Rustic Farm Girls (328 S. Main Street, next to Folklore) at 10:00 AM every Tuesday throughout the summer. The purpose of this time is friendship, connection, and encouragement.

Many people have asked how they can help provide for the Schlottmann’s housing situation. Within the next month or so, there will likely be a plan in place for those wishing to contribute to a housing fund. Stay tuned for more info.

Attention book lovers: In an attempt to refresh our facility and make the best use of space, the library is undergoing a much-needed transformation. Part of the transformation involves reducing the number of books that have accumulated over the years. The books that are being given away can be found in the hallway throughout the month of July. All remaining books will be donated in early August. You are encouraged to look through the books and take as many as you would like!

Pete and Lori Wetendorf have a trip to Israel planned for April 30–May 12, 2023. If you are interested in going, please contact Pete (406.450.0006).

MISSIONS SPOTLIGHT

The following is an excerpt from Amanda Benson's July Newsletter. Amanda is serving with missions organization SEND International. She is Vice Principal at Faith Academy in the Philippines. The full newsletter can be found in the Missionary News binder on the table in the lobby.

Last weekend, I was able to attend my mission's retreat. The conference was filled with fellowship, fun, and refreshment. My favorite part was listening to the testimonies of the new appointees – Filipinos whom God has saved and given a passion to tell others about how they, too, can know Him. When I am with my Filipino coworkers, I am always encouraged by their love for Jesus and passion to spread the gospel to the ends of the Earth. It can be easy to get so caught up in my own little world of Faith Academy, but they always remind me that there is so much more going on that God is doing. It is so awesome to be a part of that!

I am also reminded that my part in the great commission is to disciple my students at Faith Academy, allowing many missionaries in SE Asia to do their work to also spread the gospel to those who have not heard. I have officially received the Vice Principal email (complete with a signature that says I'm VP...)! I also have done my first task as VP – doing some screening testing for applying students. However, we still are in urgent need of a middle school English teacher. If we do not get one this month, I may need to continue teaching English, in which case my role as VP will be very limited (as I'm also slotted to teach Algebra 1 and advisory).

Please pray with us that God will provide the staffing that we need for the upcoming school year or give wisdom to know how to arrange staff if we don't have what we need. There are still people being interviewed to come work here, but to my knowledge, none are for middle school English.

God Bless, Amanda Benson
