Dear Friends,

*“This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you.”
-Galatians 5:8*

Preparing to lead a group devotional, this passage spoke to my heart of God’s wonderful, complete care for us. He instructs us in His Word how He moves and how things are going to work. And then He takes the extra step of showing us what He doesn’t do–“That’s not the way I work!”. Thank you, Lord, that you consider us friends, and not mere servants (John 15) and you prepare and equip us for success (Eph. 4).

We are excited to be training some new leaders on how to best use AWANA to reach their community with the Gospel. Pastor David Carr and his wife Serena [of Phillipsburg, MT] are [among] the many folks in church who have stepped up to the call to help evangelize and disciple the kids.

We want to thank you for your loving care for us. By your prayers, notes of encouragement, offers of assisting us and financial gifts, we have felt and seen God’s blessings in action through you. From the bottom of our hearts, we say, “Thank you!”...

Thank you for your prayers. We appreciate your support of the mission God has called us to.

~Jeff and Shelly Kessler
